

The Blue Ridge Institute (BRI) exists to provide growth, connection, and renewal for community service leaders. Founded in 1927, our vision is a thriving national network of transformative leaders driving equitable social change. We are grateful for support like yours to continue this important work.

For over 97 years, nonprofit changemakers have gathered in a beautiful mountain setting, away from the hustle and bustle of the working world, for BRI. By design, BRI is unlike most professional development conferences. We offer thought-provoking speaker sessions and skill lab workshops balanced with optional gatherings and rejuvenation activities. Our goal is for attendees to learn and renew at the conference so they can lead the communities they serve with knowledge and passion.

We invite you to join us as a sponsor for BRI 2024: The Power of Authenticity, July 21-25, 2024 at Unicoi State Park in Helen, Georgia. Thank you for supporting nonprofit leadership, professional development, and the benefits BRI brings to the communities we serve.

With appreciation,

Julie Smithwick
BRI President
2023-2024

Sponsorship Opportunities

To sponsor, visit www.blueridgeleaders.org/sponsor. For more information, contact BRI Executive Director Allison Gant at info@blueridgeleaders.org or 336-269-9577. Personalized sponsorships are available. For sponsorships that include a display table at BRI, tables will be located in the hallway outside of the main gathering space this year, with specific times for attendees to visit with you on Sunday 7/21 and Monday 7/22. As part of our unique approach, we encourage you to engage with BRI members throughout the conference by participating in the week's gatherings and activities.

Why sponsor the Blue Ridge Institute?

Beyond the unique opportunity to align with a prestigious and impactful community service organization, sponsoring BRI offers:

Community Impact and Legacy: BRI, established in 1927, has a long-standing legacy in fostering community leadership. Sponsoring the annual conference contributes directly to the development and support of community service leaders who drive meaningful change. This association positions sponsors as contributors to a significant and lasting community impact.

Brand Visibility and Recognition: BRI gathers a wide range of professionals, volunteers, and community leaders, offering sponsors high visibility among key demographics. Your brand will be associated with values such as leadership development, community service, and philanthropy, enhancing your organization's public image and recognition.

Networking Opportunities: BRI provides a platform for sponsors to network with community leaders, nonprofit professionals, and other sponsors and partners. This creates opportunities for building valuable connections, partnerships, and collaborations that can be beneficial for business and community engagement strategies.

Targeted Marketing: Sponsoring BRI enables targeted marketing to a concentrated audience interested in community service and leadership. This can be particularly effective for businesses and individuals seeking to establish or strengthen their presence in the nonprofit and community development sectors.

Supporting Diversity and Inclusion: Your sponsorship will also support BRI's commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA), aligning your brand with these crucial values.

Educational Impact: By sponsoring BRI, you contribute to the professional development and education of nonprofit leaders. This aligns your brand with lifelong learning and leadership excellence, crucial in today's dynamic environment.

Access to Community Service Insights: Sponsors often gain access to the latest trends, research, and insights in community service and nonprofit management presented at BRI. This information can be invaluable for guiding corporate social responsibility strategies and community engagement practices.

Employee Engagement and Morale: Supporting a noble cause like BRI's mission can boost employee morale and engagement within your organization. Employees take pride in their company's involvement in community-focused initiatives, which can enhance internal company culture.

Tax Benefits: Sponsorship contributions may be tax-deductible, providing your organization financial benefits.

Customized Sponsorship Opportunities: BRI offers tailored sponsorship packages to meet the specific marketing, CSR, or philanthropic goals of your organization, ensuring that your sponsorship aligns perfectly with your strategic objectives.

We believe sponsoring BRI is not just a marketing opportunity, but an investment in community leadership, social responsibility, and the collective effort to drive positive change in society.
